

James Turrell Passageways (DVD)

£20.00

A pilot for many years, James Turrell is today one of the greatest American Land Art artists, and considers the sky as his studio.

Upon spectacular and historical aerial images of Arizona's canyons, Turrell recalls his formal research on natural light and his friendship with the Hopi Indians.

This film gives James Turrell the opportunity to present his masterpiece, Roden Crater, a true celestial light observatory!

A Film by Carine Asscher.

DVD. 26 min, colour, English.
