Roundabouts

£28

On the occasion of the first major solo-exhibition of Swedish artist Andreas Eriksson, Bonniers Konsthall has produced this rather special artist's book monograph.

The book includes two new texts by internationally renowned writers and present a vast array of images, giving an overview of artist's work covering the last 10 years of his production.

This is the first publication of its kind, and compliments the numerous artist books and smaller project-specific publications previously produced by the Eriksson and previous exhibitors.

The book, with its extensive concertina cover and beautiful binding has been designed by the prizewinning graphic designer Patric Leo.
