

Mies 1:1

Ludwig Mies van der Rohe. The Golf Club Project

£28

This volume documents Ludwig Mies van der Rohe's unrealized plans for a golf clubhouse in Krefeld, drafted in 1930.

The book includes sketches and architectural plans. It also provides a detailed chronicle of the building of a full scale, walk-through model, which was erected on the original site in Krefeld in 2013, following the original plans from the estate of the architect held by the Museum of Modern Art in New York.
