

Phyllida Barlow
Mix

£12.00

Special Price

With Phyllida Barlow, the Lokremise Kunstmuseum (St. Gallen) in 2015 plays host to one of today's most important British sculptors.

Her installations result from an intensive dialogue with the space that they occupy.

Like no other artist of her generation, Barlow is capable of combining vastly different materials in a refreshing way into a coherent whole.

Product Details

Artist(s)	Phyllida Barlow
Author(s)	Konrad Bitterli, Céline Gaillard, Claudia Hürlimann, Irina Wedlich
Editor(s)	Konrad Bitterli
Publisher	Verlag für moderne Kunst
ISBN	9783903004702
Format	hardback
Pages	76
Illustrations	colour
Dimensions	200mm x 260mm
Weight	516

Publication Date: Dec 2015

Key Selling Points

- Unique monograph on the artist's major show of recent work in Germany.
- Phyllida Barlow is Professor Emerita at the Slade School of Fine Art, London. In 2011, she became a Royal Academician Elect, and in 2012 was awarded the Aachen Art Prize.

Also Available:

Phyllida Barlow: Fifty Years of Drawings

[£49.00 / 9783037643662 / JRP|Ringier]