

Diez Office
Full House

£38.00

The practice of German designer Stefan Diez is characterized by innovation through technical expertise, instinct and a passion for experimentation.

Full House, a comprehensive compilation of his multifaceted body of work, portrays his studio's distinctive methodology and development processes and delivers first-hand insight into the state of industrial design today, complemented by a collection of essays and interviews exploring some of the most pressing and controversial issues in the field.

Many of Diez's products have received international design awards, including the Designpreis der Bundesrepublik Deutschland, the IF Gold award, and the red dot design best of the best award. He is Professor for Industrial Design at the HFG Karlsruhe.
