

Asia Triennial Manchester. Who Do You Think You Are?
An Exploration into the Boundaries of Asian Identities in Contemporary Culture

£19.99

What does it mean to be Asian today?

How can we begin to define negotiate, negate or remodel the boundaries of this vast continent in relation to identities and issues of gender, race, community, ability, borders, conflicts or their intersections?

This book is based on the symposium that was part of the Asia Triennial Manchester 2018. Who do you think you are? is a re-framing of the ambiguous and impossible demand so often encountered by people of colour in the post-industrial, multi-cultural city in the UK, where are you (really) from?

The provocation invited artistic, cultural and political responses to narratives around Asian identities, their intersection with present cultural preoccupations on the nature of identity, organised around dialectics of gender and sexuality; community and migration, technology and humanity.

Key Selling Points

- Contemporary Asian art
- Identity. Politics. Migration
- Narratives around performance art
- Methodological approaches to art research
- Scholarly and practitioners' perspective on art and identity

Product Details

Artist(s)	Amina Ansari, Rina Arya, DISKURS Berlin, Tim Brennan, Jung Me Chai, Jai Chuhan, Jungmin Lee, Anjum Malik, Qasim Riza Shaheen, Won Jung Shin, Marcus Steinweg, William Titley
Author(s)	Alnoor Mitha
Editor(s)	Emma Roberts
Publisher	HOME Publications
ISBN	9781999372002
Format	hardback
Pages	120
Illustrations	32 colour
Dimensions	240mm x 170mm
Weight	485

Publication Date: Jul 2019