Kasper Bosmans
Dovetail

£30.00

Rooted in historical research, Kasper Bosmans disentangles the intersection of signs that create cultural meaning in both micro and macro registers.

Bosmans investigates diverse cultural relics — taken from the realms of government, folk art, and technology — in order to establish new modes of reading the history of power and knowledge that linger in spaces between concept and material.

Features a photo essay by Marina Pinsky.

Published with WIELS, Brussels.