Noé Duchaufour-Lawrance

£22.50

Deeply rooted in natural forms and fine craftsmanship, Duchaufour-Lawrance's practice ranges from objects or furniture design to architecture working for majors industry leaders.

His work has been commissioned by Saint Louis, Hermès, Ligne Roset, Cinna, Bernhardt Design, Sèvres, Mobilier National, Baccarat, Zanotta, Neal Feay, as well as many private project patrons.

Noé Duchaufour-Lawrance (born 1974, lives and works in Portugal since 2018) is a French designer working across a wide range of disciplines and materials to create a unified body of work with a narrative deeply rooted in nature.

Fuelled by a rich creative background, he approaches design with an instinct and sensibility that gives form to projects ranging from architecture to furniture, interiors to bespoke, limited edition collections. His sculptural work showcases a respect for the past, combined with a simplicity of line and an honest desire to create pieces that last.

Throughout his career, he collaborated with major brands such as Saint Louis, Hermès, Ligne Roset, Cinna, Ceccotti collezioni, Tai Ping and Bernhardt Design among others, as well as many exhibitions and cultural institutions.

Regarding interior design, Noé Duchaufour-Lawrance designed global boutiques for Montblanc, Air France lounge areas, the interior of the Ciel de Paris and London Sketch restaurants, as well as private residences.

This is the very first publication dedicated to the Duchaufour-Lawrance's design practice.
