

Peter Fischli
Planet People Profit

£45.00

Peter Fischli depicts 296 book sleeves in loose topic sequence, imitating the kind of classification principles you would find in a bookshop – self-help, specialist and reference books.

All of the books revolve around questions of finance and the economy, management, banking, accounting, maximising profit, improving performance, etc.

The colours of all of the photos have been edited. Digital books are collaged in such a way that their presence in the real world is feigned.

English and German text.
