Gino De Dominicis

A Reader

£29.00

'Gino De Dominicis: A Reader' casts new light on the elusive Italian artist Gino De Dominicis, whose belief that artworks may provide a valuable model for achieving the immortality of the body inspired his entire life and oeuvre.

A culmination of Gabriele Guercio's extensive research, the book features a selection of texts, archival materials and images.

It is the first English reader to include not only the reflections of De Dominicis, but also an impressive collection of essays and interviews penned by a wide range of artists, art historians, critics and curators, including Marina Abramovi , Jean Christophe Ammann, Achille Bonito Oliva, Norman Bryson, Germano Celant, Anselm Kiefer, Richard Shiff and Italo Tomassoni.
