texts by Uwe Kaestner, Beate Reifenscheid

Discover Brazil brings together a range of important artistic viewpoints from a number of young Brazilian artists some of whom are already established in Brazil while others are less well known. They were selected by several curators working in Brazil, whose aim was to present the diversity of Brazilian artistic practice including painting, drawing, sculpture, photography, installation, video and performance. The result is a presentation of the creativity and originality of current art in Brazil. English and German text.
