

Local Stories

£7.95

This publication accompanies the international exhibition Local Stories held at Modern Art Oxford (7 March – 30 April 2006). The exhibition explores the idea that stories are often the subject or starting point for the most powerful contemporary art. Inspirational, pleasurable and moving, the works in Local Stories reveal how the personal and incidental can reflect broader social and political realities.

The exhibition includes artists from the UK, Mexico, India and the Czech Republic and contains an essay by Modern Art Oxford's Director, Andrew Nairne, and biographic information and colour images for all of the contributing artists.
