

Susan Trangmar

A Play in Time

£16.99

For this new Photoworks commission, Susan Trangmar uses moving image and recorded sound to explore our understanding and experience of space, time and change through the informal activities and seasonal transformations of a park in Hove.

Celebrating its centenary this year, St Ann's Well Gardens was an important site for Victorian film and A Play in Time is a fitting addition to this rich history. A Play in Time is overall a beautiful evocation of the freedom we enjoy in green spaces.

Reflecting on contemporary recreation and urban life, Trangmar considers the park as a democratic space open to all, a precious zone of shared interaction without predetermined or controlled focus. The resulting work is an intimate portrait, meticulously edited with a double screen format. At times haunting, at others lyrical and life-affirming,

This book is accompanied by a DVD.

Published to coincide with an exhibition at the Brighton Museum & Art Gallery, 20 September - 16 November 2008, part of the Brighton PhotoFringe publications
 HOME
 2 Tony Wilson Place
 Manchester
 M15 4FN
 England

Enquiries
 +44 (0)161 212 3466 / 3468
 publications@cornerhouse.org

Orders
 +44 (0) 1752 202301
 orders@nbinternational.com

Product Details

Artist(s)	Susan Trangmar
Author(s)	Claire MacDonald, David Alan Mellor, David Chandler
Editor(s)	Rebecca Drew
Publisher	Photoworks
ISBN	9781903796245
Format	hardback + DVD
Pages	96
Illustrations	illustrated in colour
Dimensions	200mm x 160mm
Weight	430

Website
www.cornerhousepublications.org

Twitter
 @CornerhousePubs