

Rive Gauche / Rive Droite

£7

Imagine the meeting between a modified telephone pole and a table lamp with a face instead of a bulb, an improbable expressionist object in ceramic, ink drawings, an ink rendering of the Superman myth, 'dreamcatchers' and oil paintings: this is what the present book – published in parallel with an eponymous exhibition drifting around the two banks of the Seine river – presents.

The publication includes the work of 27 international artists, such as Michael Bauer, Michael Cline, Andreas Hofer, Christian Holstad, Dorota Jurczak, David Noonan, Sterling Ruby, Jim Shaw, and Lucy Stein, and brings together their responses to a questionnaire, numerous illustrations, and essays by Yves Aupetitallot and Alexis Jakubowicz.

Edited by Marc Jancou, exhibition curator and New York gallerist.
