

Elmgreen & Dragset
Performances 1995 – 2011

£25

Performances 1995 – 2011 showcases 47 performance works by Danish-Norwegian artist duo Elmgreen & Dragset. The publication marks the first time the artists' practice is considered from a performance perspective.

Spanning nearly two decades, from 1995 to 2011, many of the works have never before appeared in a catalogue. The book includes image documentation of each work along with full scripts — accessible here for the first time to a broader audience — for the plays Drama Queens (2007) and Happy Days in the Art World (a Performa Commission, 2011), as well as texts by critics and curators including Aaron Betsky, Jens Hoffmann, and Shannon Jackson.
