

John Isaacs
The Hand that Rocks the Cradle

£27

John Isaacs' work encompasses many different media, though much of it has origins in sculpture. The artist continually redefines his style, moving seamlessly through installation, sculpture, photography, film, painting and drawing.

The catalogue shows sculptures by the artist made of the most diverse materials such as bronze, wax, marble and ceramics as well as drawings, neon installations, various mixed media installations, oil paintings and black-and-white photography.

Published alongside the exhibition at Galerie Michael Haas, Berlin, 26 February – 25 May 2013.

English and German text.
