

Roman Ondak
New Observations

£38.00

New Observations is the must-have sequel to Roman Ondak's artist book Observations.

Both complement the conceptual artwork the artist has been developing since 1995.

The series of photographs, appropriated from a 1950s book, attempts to classify human behaviour. Removed from their original context the photographs and their captions are revealed as pseudoscientific or even funny

Co-published with Kunstforum Regensburg.

Roman Ondak is the winner of the Lovis-Corinth Prize 2018.

This book accompanies the exhibition 'Roman Ondak: Based on True Events, Lovis-Corinth Prize 2018' 19 May -9 Sep 2018, Kunstforum Regensburg.

Key Selling Points

- Roman Ondak, born 1966 in Žilina. Studied in Bratislava. Exhibitions at the MoMA, New York and Tate Modern, London. Ondak lives and works in Bratislava.

Product Details

Artist(s)	Roman Ondák
Publisher	Koenig Books
ISBN	9783960983767
Format	hardback
Pages	160
Illustrations	120 b/w
Dimensions	305mm x 225mm
Weight	1055

Publication Date: Oct 2018