

Mitra Tabrizian

£38.00

British-Iranian photographer and filmmaker Mitra Tabrizian creates an unsettling imagery out of ordinary daily life. Atmospherically, she evokes almost unreal scenes which push reality and its inhabitants into the sublime realm of a fathomless emotional interior. She addresses the incidental and mundane, yet her agenda reaches deeper.

With a unique perspective, she inquires the complex social roles of the individual. And by revealing too often unnoticed phenomena of contemporary living she challenges our established conceptions of the world.

This book presents all of her works since 2012.
