

Seth SiegelauB
Better Read Than Dead. Writings and
Interviews, 1964–2013

£24.00

'Better Read Than Dead' was the title Seth SiegelauB had chosen for an anthology of his own writing—one of the projects for which he never found the time, busy as he was running his global one-man operation.

The selected writings, interviews, extended bibliography and chronology in this source book fill historical gaps in the sprawling network of exhibitions, publications, projects, and collections that constitute SiegelauB's life's work.

'SiegelauBian paperwork' comprises SiegelauB's writings, which are reproduced as scans in order to convey the variety of the documents and to give a sense of archival immersion.

Interspersed with these 'writings' are interviews and talks, several newly transcribed. The majority of interviews from, 1969-1972 are reprinted here
