exposures is a unique, national showcase of the very best student filmmaking in the UK. Lasting four days, the festival takes place every December at Cornerhouse, Manchester.

This DVD compilation offers a cross section of the best work on offer: everything from vegetable-based music videos to diary pieces and hard-hitting exposés. The film-makers range from self-taught 12-year-olds to post-grad students, and as a whole this DVD offers a first glimpse into a new generation of emerging talent. 83 minutes approximately..
