

Andrea Büttner Hidden Marriages

£26.00

In her artist book, 2017 Turner Prize shortlisted artist, Andrea Büttner displays photographs of moss together with drawings by Gwen John.

The book is based on research the artist undertook between 2011 and 2014 at the National Museum Cardiff, which houses many different collections all under one roof.

These include an art collection with the world's largest body of drawings by John, and a natural history collection with an internationally renowned moss collection.

Published to coincide with the exhibition at National Museum Cardiff 22nd – February 2nd June 2014.
