

100 Deutsche Häuser 2015/16

£14.00

The 100 most innovative, modern, and extraordinary houses designed by well-known architects from Germany. The magazine presents the very best houses – from small to large, functional to cool, from timber to concrete – in many different cities, regions, and states in Germany.

The incredible variety of the examples shown not only illustrates the wide range and exceptional quality of architecture in Germany as a whole, but also offers an insight into the housing dreams and life concepts of the people who live in these houses: well known writers tell the exciting stories of the houses and how they came to be built.

German text.
