This title is now out of print

Scheduled to coincide with the opening of the 2016 Venice Biennale, this beautiful artist's book is published on the occasion of Peter Doig's first solo exhibition in Italy.

For his exhibition at Fondazione Bevilacqua La Masa, installed in the historic rooms of the Palazzetto Tito, the celebrated Turner Prize nominated artist presents large paintings and several intimately scaled works, all of them new and being shown for the first time.

The imagery in Doig's new works is diverse, drawing on private and found visual sources.
