

Sabine Moritz
Dawn / Storm

£42.00

Places that are unreachable or only exist in the imagination are the theme of Sabine Moritz's new works.

The first volume of this beautifully designed two-part publication presents her newest series, Storm arising from a longing for nature. The second volume, Dawn contains new pictures and drawings in which apparently unrelated motives such as lab rooms, ships and dogs are combined with the artists first, abstract works.

Features a poem by Etel Adnan, and a conversation between curator, Hans Ulrich Obrist, Sabine Moritz and Etel Adnan.

English and French text.
