

Academy of Tal R

£38.00

The Danish artist Tal R has created an extensive body of work over two decades, making his mark internationally as one of the most important painters of his generation.

Tal R's visual culture has a figurative aspect, freely unfolded in painting, drawing, graphics, collage, artist's book and sculpture.

Form aside, for the artist it has always been a matter of using imagination to make the world bigger.

List of Contributors: Anders Kold: An introduction to Tal R's painting; Axel Heil: The layering of Tal R's collages and sculptures; Terry Myers: conversation with Tal R; Margrit Brehm: Tal R's artist's books; Peter Laugesen: A reading of Tal R's installation Deaf Institute.

Accompanies the exhibition, Academy of Tal R at Louisiana Museum of Modern Art, Humlebaek, Denmark (20 May – 10 September 2017).

Product Details

Artist(s)	Tal R
Author(s)	Margrit Brehm, Axel Heil, Peter Laugesen, Terry Myers, Tal R
Editor(s)	Lærke Rydal Jørgensen, Anders Kold
Publisher	Koenig Books
ISBN	9783960981541
Format	hardback
Pages	224
Illustrations	143 colour, 3 b/w
Dimensions	295mm x 243mm
Weight	1365

Publication Date: Aug 2017