Caitlin Lonegan For Dorothea: Paintings, Drawings & Notes

£32.00

The publication presents texts written by Caitlan Lonegan alongside drawings and paintings by the artist, inspired by George Elliot's 'Middlemarch'. The book's title 'For Dorothea: Paintings, Drawings & Notes' refers to the central character of the novel.

Lonegan's work is largely true to scale and presented in chronological order as a means of documenting her serial method of working.

The book includes texts from such fascinating writers as Michael Ned Holte and Kavior Moon.
