This title is now out of print

Marina Abramovic: Writings 1960-2014 synthesizes the artist's inexhaustible archive of handwritten and typed notes, diary entries, poems, accounts of dreams, travel descriptions, letters, performance instructions, narrations, concepts, ideas, collections of documents...all of this has been collated, catalogued and contextualized in this publication.

Known primarily for her radical performances and for reaching a broad public with her immaterial art during her more than 50-year career, this collection of her writings allows for an unexpected and deep insight into the artist's oeuvre.

Published on occasion of the exhibition, Marina Abramovic: The Cleaner at Bundeskunsthalle, Bonn (20 April - 12 August 2018).
