

Josef and Anni Albers Art is Everywhere DVD

£20.00

Sedat Pakay's 2006 documentary film Josef and Anni Albers: Art is Everywhere is the first to explore in tandem the lives of these artistic pioneers of twentieth-century modernism.

Produced in close association with the Josef and Anni Albers Foundation, the documentary includes rare footage of Josef and Anni and a number of unprecedented interviews with people significant in both of the Alberses' lives, including Robert Rauschenberg, Sidney Janis, Denise René, John Szarkowski, John Cohen and Philip Johnson.

DVD 57 minutes, English
