

Nil Yalter Exile is a Hard Job

£30.00

After early paintings influenced by Suprematism, Turkish artist Nil Yalter realised collages and montages, in which she integrated photos, videos and drawings of labourers and migrants.

With these works, created in the 1970s, she is considered a pioneer of socially engaged and technically advanced art.

Yalter is an artist who places feminist issues and the theme of migration at the centre of her work and is thus of the greatest relevance, especially in this day and age.

A special poster is enclosed with book.

English and German text.

Product Details

Artist(s)	Nil Yalter
Author(s)	Lauren Cornell, Fabienne Dumont, Övül Durmusoglu, Yılmaz Dzewior, Rita Kersting
Editor(s)	Rita Kersting
Publisher	Walther Koenig
ISBN	9783960985471
Format	softback
Pages	232
Illustrations	100 colour, 77 b&w
Dimensions	280mm x 220mm
Weight	1035

Publication Date: May 2019

Key Selling Points

- Nil Yalter (b. 1938, Cairo) is a Turkish contemporary feminist artist currently living in Paris.
- Her work is included in several esteemed collections, including Tate Modern, Centre Pompidou, Ludwig Museum, and Istanbul Modern.
- Solo exhibition include After Stimmung (2018), at Ludwig Museum and Nil Yalter (2018), at Hubert Winter Gallery, Austria.