

Carrousel Confessions Confusion 1 Jan De Vylder / Peter Swinnen / Arno Brandhuber

£38.00

Carrousel Confessions Confusion is a series of books in a slipcase curated by Studio Jan De Vylder at ETH Zürich.

World-renowned architects are asked to confess a building, a garden, a book or whatever could have been relevant in a certain moment of their life and career. The authors share places or situations that became important for personal reasons and sometimes unexpectedly. Confessing is always something personal and goes along with the idea of a certain confusion.

Carrousel Confessions Confusion is a series of sets. Each set is composed by three zines. Each zine is about one confession. Each confession is narrated through words and images by the author, a critical text mainly written by Maarten Delbeke, pictures by Filip Dujardin and a drawing by Inge Vinck.

Jan De Vylder selects, Renee Heyvaert House for his brother.

Peter Swinnen selects, Luc Deleu. Deependance Furkapasshohe.

Arno Brandhuber selects, Dominikus Bohm. St. Peter and Paul Church.
