

Secundino Hernández Grapado a la piel

£23.00

Secundino Hernández (b. 1975, Madrid) is one of most dynamic painters of his generation, celebrated for his spirited enquiry into the language, history and enduring potential of his medium. For this body of work, created in Venice earlier this year, the artist focuses on the human form.

The paintings – some no bigger than a hand's width – condense Hernández's signature approach to material and process, alighting on the classical subject of the female nude while introducing a host of additional referents.

Among these is the city of Venice, which has been a context and a source of inspiration, its presence felt in the tones and surfaces of the works on view.

Featuring a new text by the author, screenwriter and director Ray Lorgia.

Published on the occasion of the exhibition, Secundino Hernández: Grapado a la piel at Victoria Miro, Venice (13 September– 19 October 2019) which presents small-scale figurative paintings created in the Venice studio by the acclaimed Spanish artist.

English and Spanish text.

Product Details

Artist(s)	Secundino Hernández
Author(s)	Ray Lorgia
Publisher	Victoria Miro
ISBN	9781999757953
Format	softback
Pages	88
Illustrations	27 colour, 1 b&w
Dimensions	225mm x 170mm
Weight	200

Publication Date: Oct 2019

Key Selling Points

- Hernández has exhibited internationally at Royal Academy, London (UK), Kunsthalle Krems (Austria), Canberra Museum and Gallery (Australia), Art Center Los Angeles (USA), La Paz Biennial (Bolivia), among others.
- Ray Lorgia wrote the screenplay for 'Carne trémula / Live Flesh' (1997) with Pedro Almodóvar and Jorge Guerricaechevarría and the novel 'Sábado, Domingo / Saturday, Sunday' (2018), among other numerous novels, short stories and screenplays.