

Thomas Schütte

£45.00

Thomas Schütte is Germany's most important sculptor and one of the most significant artists working today.

He works figuratively as a sculptor and abstractly as a constructor of models.

His statues are in the tradition of public sculpture, however, he does not depict heroes, warriors, or kings, but rather figures undergoing hardship, waiting, possessing resistant dignity and mystery.

Published on the occasion of the exhibition, Thomas Schütte at Kunsthhaus Bregenz (13 July – 6 October 2019).

Co-published with KH Bregenz.

English and German text.
