£32.00

Andrea Heller creates works on paper as well as ceramic and glass objects in which a world of fragile landscapes, associative traces and anthropomorphic hybrids unfolds.

Reflecting on the conditions of our environments, the artist, who hails from Biel/Bienne, focuses on things like deconstruction, instability and volatility, realizing space-encompassing installations that can be experienced on various levels.

English, German and French text.

Published on occasion of the exhibition 'Andrea Heller' at Kunsthau Centre d'art Pasquart Biel/Bienne (7 July – 8 September 2019).
