

Maarten Baas New Times

£15.00

'New Times' deals with the phenomenon of time. The focus is on Baas' series 'Real Time' which he has been constantly developing since 2009.

In this series, his versatile approach to design, through the use of different disciplines, becomes particularly clear.

Baas combines film, performance, art and design to rethink clocks and thus manages to tell us stories with his design.

Published on the occasion of the exhibition at The Design Museum, Munich, 2021.

English and German text.
