

Reflecting on Feelings

40 prompt cards to deepen emotional understanding

£6.95

The 'Reflecting on Feelings' card pack contains 40 cards, featuring commentary and questions which can be used as conversation prompts in discussions, workshops, therapy sessions and the classroom.

Themes explored include everyday feelings, those relating to identity, belonging and thinking about our place in the world.

The cards support the development of emotional understanding, broaden vocabulary and enable deeper, more extended thinking and discussion to take place.

Written by Director of A Space art and therapy service, Lyn French (art therapist, counsellor and psychoanalytic psychotherapist) and designed by Sonja Frick, this set can be used together with any of our Emotional Learning Card image sets and are suitable for use with any age group.

Co-published with A Space in the 'Emotional Learning Cards' series.
