

Rimini Protokoll

£36.00

This book is a journey: to places of inspiration, backstage, archives, notebooks, text worlds and thus through the more than 120 productions (theatre, radio plays, films, installations, etc.) by the experimental German theatre group, Rimini Protokoll.

It is also an attempt to summarise the oeuvre after 20 years of artistic collaboration in groups of works, to lay new tracks – not just to document them chronologically but to watch the sparks fly.

Rimini Protokoll was founded in 2000 by Helgard Haug, Stefan Kaegi, and Daniel Wetzel.

They create stage plays, interventions, scenic installations, and radio plays. Many of their works are characterised by interactivity and a playful use of technology.
