

World Culture Districts Spaces of the 21st Century

£34.00

Cultural districts are playing a key cultural and social role throughout the world in the twenty-first century. They offer an incomparable density of art and culture and have a profound influence on the development of cities and regions.

'World Culture Districts' presents the first-ever overview of this phenomenon, featuring fifteen of the most important cultural districts on six continents.

The range of different kinds of cultural districts and their respective influence on space and society is revealed, and essays by international experts such as Gail Lord, Adrian Ellis, Matthias Sauerbruch and Louisa Hutton, Vitus H. Weh and Christian Strasser shed light on current issues surrounding their development and impact.

Culture districts featured include; Museumsinsel Berlin, Germany; Quartier des Spectacles Montréal, Canada; The GoDown Arts Centre Nairobi, Kenya; Gorky Park and Garage Museum of Contemporary Art, Russia; Töölönlahti Helsinki, Finland and Southbank Centre London, United Kingdom.
