

Daniel Crews-Chubb

Flowers and Monsters

£30.00

Published on occasion of 'Flowers and Monsters', a solo exhibition of works presented by Daniel Crews-Chubb at Gallery Weekend Beijing (23 June – 24 July 2022).

The book includes a transcribed conversation of Daniel Crews-Chubb with Lu Mingjun.

The catalogue is an experience flipping through the different shaped and sized pages which show Crews-Chubb's monsters swimming in pools of empty white space executed with slanted black lines and the monsters relate to ancient legends such as the sphinx and the water serpent.

The Flowers series, by contrast, celebrates uncontrolled colour, spilling patches of artificial pinks and oranges in a tapestry of paint.

English and Chinese text.
