

Anna Boghiguian

Period of Change

£48.00

New book on the work of the Egyptian-Canadian artist of Armenian origin Anna Boghiguian: 'Anna Boghiguian: Period of Change'.

In a dense documentation of the work, juxtaposed with installation views and pages of the artist's handwritten manuscripts, the publication which is rich in imagery provides a guide through work of the artist, enabling the reader to immerse themselves in Boghiguian's artistic cosmos.

In a comprehensive discussion with Thomas D. Trummer, Anna Boghiguian expounds on the processes involved in creating her works and its key subject matter.

A text authored by the artist herself condenses the themes and thoughts that have flowed into her works.

Published on occasion of the exhibition 'Anna Boghiguian: Period of Change', 22 Oct 2022 – 19 Feb 2023, Kunsthaus Bregenz, Austria.

English and German text.

Co-published with KH Bregenz.

Anna Boghiguian, * 1946 in Cairo, Egypt. Painter and drawer with an unique, direct and personal approach, lives nomadically between Cairo, India and Europe.
