

Monika Sosnowska

Fatigue

£24.00

Monika Sosnowska: Fatigue is published on the occasion of the acclaimed Polish artist's exhibition at Kunstraum Dornbirn, which took place in Summer/Fall 2022.

It contains a foreword by director Thomas Häusle and a text by curator and art critic Stach Szabowski.

Sosnowska's artistic view of the built environment is closely linked to contemporary historical developments.

Buildings are understood as places of experience, places of memory, with all the historical, political, psychological and anthropological markings that have been inflicted on the architecture over time.

The interplay of the works that have been displayed in Dornbirn with the rough, untreated architecture of the former assembly hall results in a psychosocial image of our history and present.

English and German text.

Published on occasion of the exhibition 'Monika Sosnowska: Fatigue', 17 Jun – 30 Oct 2022, Kunstraum Dornbirn.

Monika Sosnowska is represented by Hauser & Wirth.

The artist also features in the forthcoming book from IKON, to accompany their exhibition 'Horror in the Modernist Block'.
