Yona Friedman / Hans Ulrich Obrist The Conversation Series: 7

£12

Yona Friedman is the great utopian and visionary among architects of the 20th century. A native of Hungary, who lives and works in Paris, Friedman considers himself both an architect and sociologist.

The needs of the individual in the heterogeneous urban societies in which he, the cosmopolitan, moves, form the topic of the conversations with Hans Ulrich Obrist and reveal a deeply-animated humanistic and wise intellect.
