Zaha Hadid / Hans Ulrich Obrist The Conversation Series: 8

£11.5

Here the architect and Pritzker Award winner Zaha Hadid talks about projects which established her distinctive, so-called deconstructivist style.

By discussing important examples of diverse types of buildings, Hadid positions herself aesthetically as well as socially and culturally within contemporary architecture.

Conceptual as well as constructural questions are discussed with great factual precision, providing authentic insight into one of the great international architectural firms.
