

Gilbert & George / Hans Ulrich Obrist

The Conversation Series: 9

£13

Interviews from the past seven years provide an authentic perspective on the most important road marks in the œuvre of the artist couple Gilbert & George, who have worked together for over four decades. Some of the conversations are performative in character.

The interviews and the art created cannot be separated, and the interplay between them creates a complex biographical mosaic. The irritations that the artists have provoked internationally with their large-format tableaux representing body parts and excretions, and their collaboration with curators and institutions are also topics featured in the conversation.
