Emotional Learning Cards

£14.95

- New education resource for stimulating young people's creative exploration into emotions. Suitable for 10 – 14 year olds
- Boxed-set with 20 colour cards featuring contemporary art images and questions relating the images to young people's life experiences
- Artists include Anish Kapoor, Chila Kumari Burman, Yayoi Kusama, Chris Ofili, Franklyn Rodgers, Yinka Shonibare and Do-Ho Suh
- Especially created for young people navigating adolescence and experiencing change
- Includes a booklet with ideas for activities using the boxed-set at home, school or in therapy contexts

'These cards effectively combine thought-provoking contemporary art images with stimulating questions that highlight themes relating to social identity, gender and the meanings we give to our experiences. They will be very useful for art therapists, teachers and parents.' Diane Waller OBE (Professor of Art Psychotherapy, Goldsmiths, University of London)
