

Dominique Gonzalez-Foerster / Hans Ulrich Obrist

The Conversation Series: 12

£12

Hans Ulrich Obrist visited the media artist Dominique Gonzalez-Foerster several times, e.g. during a performance rehearsal. This generated intense conversations about her central topics amidst the artistic practice: spaces, memories, references and empty places.

She speaks about her collaborations with architects, stage designers, dancers and performers. In a telephone conference with Nicolas Ghesquière she comments on the cooperation with the artist. She also reveals her idols – the secret 'heroes'.

Together with Hans Ulrich Obrist she also interviews the legendary sculptor Marta Pan and the architect André Wogenscky, who died in 2004. The book captivates with fascinating conversations across generations, transcending classical interviews.
