

Lady Lucy
Ladies, All The Ladies

£10

An artist's film by Lady Lucy accompanied by an essay by Lucy O'Brien. As a visual artist Lucy Woolett has chosen 'Lady Lucy' as an alter ego to work under. In urban music circles this use of the word 'Lady' is a re-occurring theme and Ladies, All The Ladies is the result of Lady Lucy's self-imposed search to meet other 'Ladies'.

Lady Lucy's film is an inspiring portrait of women MCs, DJs, producers and performers involved in Urban music: Hip Hop, Drum n Bass, Garage, Reggae, Dance Hall, R n B, House and Grime from Bristol, UK and internationally, all of whom use the prefix 'Lady'. Featuring Diss Miss (Dutty Girl, Girl Wonder), Laydee Bird, Lady Free, Lady K & Lady Maxiumu, Lady Paradox, Lady Raz.

Ladies, All The Ladies was supported by Picture This' Small Wonders development scheme, funded by The Esmee Fairbairn Foundation; and received funding from Arts Council England.
