Performa 07 Everywhere and All at Once

£23

This book is the second in a series of publications drawing content and inspiration from the world-renowned Performa biennials.

Everywhere and All at Once reflects the ever-changing nature of the Performa biennials, offering an exhilarating view into key themes highlighted in Performa 07.

In addition to providing an in-depth look at new performances by some of the world's most exciting visual artists, it focuses on the relationship between contemporary dance and visual art, the ongoing legacy of 'Happenings' inventor Allan Kaprow, and the recent explosion of performance in China.

Inventive documentation by the 100 international artists who participated in the biennial, including vibrant photographs of each performance along with artists' scripts, sketches, journals, and storyboards accompanies a wealth of writings by prominent curators and critics, as well as dozens of interviews with some of the most significant artists of our time.
