

Doug Aitken
The Idea of the West

£37

Sunsets over the Pacific... Surfers... Movie stars... Coyotes in the street... Sex.

Doug Aitken's The Idea of the West presents the collective response of 1,000 people on the street who were asked 'What is your idea of the West?' to create a manifesto from the quotes and comments of random individuals.

Through an amazing assortment of over 200 colour and black-and-white images juxtaposed with responses to this question, this book takes the reader on a high-speed journey across space and time to trace the mythology of the New West.

In addition, the book also features conversational fragments by a host of creators based in the Pacific region, including Devendra Banhart, Bruce Brown, Charles Burnett, Exene Cervenka, Fallen Fruit, Simone Forti, Fritz Haeg, Miranda July, No Age, Raymond Pettibon, Rodarte, and Ryan Trecartin.

A hybrid artist's book that brings together elements from classic 1970s photobooks, agit-prop paperbacks, and music 'zines.

Co-published with The Museum of Contemporary Art, Los Angeles, and D.A.P., New York.
