

Tactics of Invisibility

£19

Tactics of Invisibility offers a visual and textual introduction to the work of the participating artists, as well as a wider discussion on the aesthetic and political implications of visibility and invisibility within the socio-political context of Turkey and its diasporas.

It proposes a slightly provocative take on the regime of the visible in the contemporary condition, in which visibility seems no longer to be a means of emancipation but rather the precondition of a society of control and mediated conformism.

The temporary suspension of the representational thus allows a focus on that which is not visible and on the underlying mechanisms within today's political ecologies.
