

Danish Artists' Books

£34

This title offers the first-ever comprehensive presentation of Danish artists' books – the pioneers, the main works, the periods, the links to international movements, contemporary artists' books.

The artists who have had the greatest impact on the artist's book tradition in Denmark are featured, including Asger Jorn, Albert Mertz, Per Kirkeby, Lene Adler Petersen, Jesper Fabricius, Christian Vind, and Tal R.

It contains many contributions from Danish scholars, art critics, artists, and collectors – and from two of the leading international scholars within the field, Anne Moeglin-Delcroix and Johanna Drucker.

English and Danish text.
